In the space provided here please draw a self-portrait of yourself as a character you like from a film you really like! Use the back if you need more room.

If such a tragedy has EVER befallen you, can you tell us about the very worst thing you have ever encountered in a Literature or a Writing class so that we can make sure to avoid this terrible mistake?

Is there an aspect of your writing you would like to work on during the course of this semester?

Can you tell us the name of the last book, film, or album that made you think or changed your view of the world?
